“…Worth it.”

MONARCH CAM · ORIGINAL 3D SERIES · PETS & ANIMALS

HOW TO USE — 2 Minutes

DesignArena → Code to Video → page 3-4 ka poora prompt paste karein → Generate. Done.

VOICEOVER KA HAL (3 options — koi bhi EK kaam karega):

• OPTION A — ZERO UPLOAD (recommended): prompt ke andar hi pura narration script + voice direction mojood hai (AUDIO section). Tool khud voice synthesize karke animation sync karega. Kuch attach karne ki zaroorat NAHI.

• OPTION B — Drive se file: tool audio file accept karta hai toh NIGHT-SHIFT-E01-vo.mp3 (voice-02, 32.26s) attach karein — file PUBLIC hai, link se seedha download.

• OPTION C — Built-in TTS: DesignArena ka Text-to-Speech tool — narration script paste karein (dry mischievous male voice) → jo audio bane woh attach karein.

REGEN RULE: pehla render perfect nahi aayega — normal hai. Same prompt dobara chalayein (2-3 tries). Last page ka QA checklist se verify karein.

THE COMPLETE PROMPT — copy everything below

Yeh poora block DesignArena Code-to-Video prompt box me paste karein (audio EMBEDDED hai):

PASTE-READY PROMPT — v2 (audio embedded)

```
Cinematic 3D animation short film, stylized fur, soft volumetric NIGHT lighting, moonlight + warm porch light contrast, Pixar-quality character animation with expressive eyes, handheld documentary camera feel, VERTICAL 1080x1920, 30fps, exactly 40 seconds.

=== AUDIO / VOICEOVER (self-contained — no external file needed) ===
Create the video's AUDIO TRACK: a voiceover narration of the script below, spoken by a dry, mischievous, warm male storyteller — like a tiny confident burglar reading his own diary. Comedic timing, natural dramatic pauses at the "…" marks, a proud whisper on the final line. Sync every animation beat to these narration timings exactly. Add subtle night ambience (crickets, light wind) and gentle playful background music under the voice. Sound effects: door handle click, crunching bites, camera flash pop, soft plank bonk, slow-mo footstep. If an external voiceover audio file is attached, use that file as the narration instead and sync the animation to it.

NARRATION SCRIPT (exact words, timed to the storyboard):
[0.0-2.8s] "Sandwich. Chips. Cookies. My greatest heist."
[2.8-8.8s] "Three in the morning. A pickup truck in the driveway. Door unlocked. Amateurs. I give it a pull… and we're in."
[8.8-14.5s] "Jackpot. I'm mid-bite when the human opens the door… and just stands there. Frozen."
[14.5-21.0s] "Then he takes a picture. Really, sir? Then he comes back with a plank of wood."
[21.0-27.0s] "Buddy… this is a sandwich, not a siege. So I leave. Out the driver's side. With dignity."
[27.5-31.0s] "…Worth it."
[31-40s] (no narration — music and atmosphere only)

=== CHARACTER (keep identical in all shots) ===
BANDIT: a young black bear cub — round ears, a CINNAMON-COLORED MUZZLE, a small TORN NOTCH IN HIS LEFT EAR, and a small RED BACKPACK on his back. Mischievous, confident eyes. Moves like a tiny confident burglar.
THE HUMAN: only ever a soft-focus silhouette or back-view, grey hoodie, no face detail.

=== HARD RULES ===
Absolutely NO text, NO captions, NO watermarks, NO logos, NO UI anywhere in any frame. No camera timestamps. Clean cinematic frames only.

=== STORYBOARD (timed to the narration) ===
- 0.0-2.8s: EXTREME CLOSE-UP on the loot: a wrapped sandwich, a bag of chips and cookies glowing in a sliver of moonlight on a truck passenger seat. A furry paw reaches into frame and grabs the sandwich. Slow push-in.
- 2.8-8.8s: WIDE SHOT. 3 AM, quiet suburban driveway, a grey pickup truck parked, light fog, stars above. BANDIT trots to the passenger door, stands on hind legs, pulls the door handle — the door swings open. Low-angle hero shot as it opens.
- 8.8-14.5s: INTERIOR. BANDIT sitting on the passenger seat mid-bite, crumbs flying, pure joy. Suddenly the door frame is blocked by THE HUMAN's silhouette. Both freeze. Comedy freeze-frame beat, hold 1 second. Shallow depth of field, moonlight rim light on the cub.
- 14.5-21.0s: The Human raises a phone — a camera FLASH pops. CUT TO: The Human walking back toward the truck carrying a long wooden plank like a lance, absurd wide stance, comedy framing. BANDIT watches from the seat, unimpressed, head tilted.
- 21.0-27.0s: BANDIT rolls his eyes, hops over the center console to the driver's seat, and exits out the DRIVER'S side door. SLOW-MOTION dignified walk away from the truck, backpack on, sandwich in paw, chin up.
- 27.5-31.0s: EXTREME CLOSE-UP on BANDIT's face: a slow smirk, one eyebrow raised, a crumb on his muzzle. Hold.
- 31-40s: FINAL SHOT. BANDIT walks away down the driveway into the night, small red backpack visible. Camera slowly pulls UP and TILTS to the starry sky, ending on his tiny silhouette walking under the moon. Peaceful, funny, warm ending. Last 2 seconds: gentle freeze frame.

CHARACTER BIBLE — LOCK (poori series me same)

BANDIT	Young black bear cub. Round ears · CINNAMON muzzle · TORN NOTCH IN LEFT EAR · small RED BACKPACK. Mischievous confident eyes; moves like a tiny confident burglar.
THE HUMAN	Only soft-focus silhouette / back-view, grey hoodie, NEVER a detailed face.
CATCHPHRASE	“…Worth it.” — end of every episode. Series signature.

QA CHECKLIST — har render pe yeh check karein

- ■ Bandit CONSISTENT — torn LEFT ear, red backpack, cinnamon muzzle (bible se match)
- ■ Frames bilkul CLEAN — zero text / watermark / logo / camera timestamp
- ■ Hook 3 second me loot + paw dikhe (intro sequence KABHI NAHI)
- ■ VO timing match — narration ke saath scene beats theek (storyboard table)
- ■ Paws / door handle / physics clean (AI ka weak point — glitch ho toh regen)
- ■ Smirk close-up (27.5-31s) = THUMBNAIL moment — face quality make-or-break
- ■ Vertical 1080x1920 output confirm karein
